WB 6/8/43

The proposal is to exempt from payment of gate fees levied under bylaw no 9 of the market bylaws, jaggery, dry chillies & tamarind brought for sale by the permanent stall holders in the city market. It is said that the acceptance of this proposal would involve a loss of Rs 5/- p.a to the Market Committee, the Bylaws Committee & the Municipal Council are unanimous in opinion that the proposal maybe sanctioned. These are articles of common use & if the gate fee is removed, it would perhaps be possible for the merchants to sell them at a comparatively lower rate. The amendment of the bylaw No 10 may be sanctioned, as proposed.
